

About Barbara Wilbrink

Barbara Wilbrink is an attorney-at-law at AKD. She specialises in transport and trade law. She advises and represents clients in cases relating to logistics services such as warehousing, freight forwarding, terminal handling and digital logistics platforms, and rail and road transport (CMR). She also has experience drafting and reviewing logistics contracts and terms and conditions.

Barbara successfully completed the postgraduate course in transport law at the Erasmus University Rotterdam and the postgraduate course in contract law at the Grotius Academie.

Barbara Wilbrink

Attorney-at-law

bwilbrink@akd.eu
+31 88 253 5522
+31 6 46 60 76 19
The Netherlands

Languages

- Dutch
- English

Admitted to bar

- The Netherlands

Membership

- Dutch Association for Transport Law (NVV)
- Supervisory Board of the Foundation Heritage Ports Rotterdam
- AIJA (International Association of Young Lawyers)

Education

- Utrecht University: Master of Laws - Private Law
- University of Sydney
- Erasmus University Rotterdam: postgraduate course Transport Law
- Grotius Academie: postgraduate course in contract law