About Christelle Umugwaneza

Christelle is an attorney-at-law at AKD, specialising in corporate employment law.

As a key member of the Employment & Pensions team, Christelle brings extensive expertise across several critical areas, including organisational restructuring, individual dismissals, and the employment law aspects of mergers and acquisitions.

With a sharp eye for detail, Christelle excels in negotiating and drafting various employment agreements, ensuring that clients' needs are addressed with precision and clarity.

Prior to joining AKD, Christelle gained valuable experience in both criminal and employment law, having spent two years refining her skills in these areas. This diverse background enhances her ability to navigate complex legal challenges.

In addition to her legal practice, Christelle actively serves on the Diversity & Inclusion Commission of the French-speaking Brussels Bar, demonstrating her commitment to fostering a more inclusive legal community.
