

About Coen Vermeij

Coen Vermeij is attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in economic regulatory law. Coen is part of the EU law, competition and regulation team. He primarily focuses on government financing and contracting with the government. Additionally, Coen specialises in competition law, with expertise in cartel cases (including cartel damages cases), merger control (including sector specific regulation), and cooperation between competitors. Coen assists both government institutions and companies (whether private or public).

Coen Vermeij

Attorney-at-law

cvermeij@akd.eu
+32 2 629 42 87
+32 472 20 36 85
Belgium

Languages

- Dutch
- English

Membership

- Netherlands Association for European Law (NVER)

Education

- Utrecht University: Bachelors in Dutch Law and Comparative Literary Studies
- Utrecht University: Master in European Law