About Elise Heyman

Elise Heyman is a lawyer at AKD who advises and litigates on all aspects of employment law. She has a particular interest in public service law, cross-border and/or flexible employment and issues relating to employer liability.

Since the start of her career Elise has always focused entirely on employment law. As a result she now has a great deal of experience with advising and litigating on, for example, the law governing (collective and individual) dismissals, sick employees, (amendments to) employment conditions and the Works Councils Act [Wet op de ondernemingsraden] (WOR).

Elise also advises and litigates on corporate law issues relating to employment law, for example the appointment and dismissal of directors under the articles.
