

Haco van der Houven van Oordt

Partner, Lawyer

hvanoordt@akd.eu

+31 88 253 5392

+31 6 52 04 83 34

The Netherlands

Languages

- Dutch
- English

Admitted to bar

- The Netherlands

Membership

- Editor of the national law report Schip & Schade
- Supervisory board member of the Maritime Museum Rotterdam

Education

- Leiden University - Law
- Delt University of Technology - Engineering
- University of Hartford. Activities and Societies: Theta Chi

About Haco van der Houven van Oordt

Haco van der Houven van Oordt is a lawyer and partner at AKD. He is an international litigation specialist with a focus on shipping and offshore. Haco has extensive experience with disputes involving marine accidents and the construction and operation of ships and offshore objects.

Haco is proficient in the preparation and execution of an international litigation strategy. He is an expert in the field of attachments and the enforcement of securities and frequently litigates in connection with marine insurance. Haco is regularly involved in disputes in and around the Dutch Caribbean. Clients appreciate his drive and creativity which often lead to original solutions.

Haco lectures maritime law at Utrecht University and is an editor of the maritime and insurance law review 'Schip & Schade'. He is also a member of the supervisory board of the Maritime Museum and of the International Working Group on Polar Shipping – Subgroup Antarctic Shipping of the Comité Maritime International.