

About Jill Tielemans

A corporate attorney-at-law at AKD, Jill Tielemans specialises in national and international transactions, such as cross-border mergers and acquisitions, divestments and joint ventures.

She also gained experience as in-house legal counsel, which enables her to provide a practical commercial approach to legal problems, including compliance and restructuring challenges.

Jill's clients are Dutch and international clients, Dutch family-owned companies, multinationals, foreign (listed) clients and private equity funds.
