About Maarten Munsterman

Maarten Munsterman is a tax consultant at AKD. He advises companies about the tax aspects of their day-to-day operations and assists them during mergers and acquisitions (including due diligence and restructuring). He also advises on setting up investment funds.

Maarten's clients are primarily internationally operating companies which are active in, among others, the (agro) chemicals, energy and IT sectors. They appreciate his thorough advice which is an added value for their daily activities. His advice is also valuable in the context of strategic decisions.
