Michelle Hendrikk

Michelle Hendrikk is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in construction and real estate law. She advises and represents clients in real estate transactions and project developments and also helps project developers, local authorities and contractors with drawing up contracts.

Michelle also has experience with advising on all kinds of construction disputes. In this context Michelle litigates before the civil courts and the Board of Arbitration for the Construction Industry [Raad van Arbitrage voor de Bouw].

Michelle's clients appreciate her open and critical attitude. She always tries to achieve the maximum result for her clients without losing sight of a practical approach.
