About Sanne Swinkels

Sanne is a lawyer at AKD who specialises in corporate and property law. Sanne advises a broad range of clients about the various aspects of (cross-border) financing transactions (syndicated and club credit facilities, LMA documentation) and securitisations. Acquisition, ship and real estate financings as well as restructurings are part of her field of expertise.

Sanne graduated from the Radboud University, where she obtained her certificate for the disciplinary honours programme and a bachelor's degree in civil law (Cum Laude). Sanne also graduated the dual master Business and Law, pursuant to which she was already a part of AKD's corporate team.

Sanne has written various publications, including an article about Dutch pledges forming part of European financial collateral agreement.
