

About Stéphane de Watazzi

Stéphane is a senior associate in the area of dispute resolution. He advises clients in commercial, civil and corporate litigation matters and acts in a range of complex cross-border corporate and financial litigation cases with a specific focus on shareholder disputes.

He has a vast expertise in contract law and specialises in construction law. His in-depth procedural knowledge and interest in this field ensures a high quality of work and a strong and effective defence for his clients.

Stéphane has been a member of the Luxembourg Bar since 2017.

Before joining AKD, he worked in reputable law firms and a financial institution in Luxembourg.

Stéphane de Watazzi

Senior Associate

SdeWatazzi@akd.eu

+352 26 75 82 342

+352 691 558 816

Luxembourg

Languages

- French
- English
- German
- Luxembourgish

Education

- University of Luxembourg: Master's degree in European Business Criminal Law
- University Paris I Panthéon Sorbonne - France: Law Degree in International and European Law
- University of Luxembourg: Bachelor of Laws