

About Thijs ten Caten

Thijs ten Caten is an attorney-at-law at AKD who specialises in energy law, general administrative law and issues concerning digitalisation. His clients include public-sector organisations and companies.

Thijs holds master's degrees in State and Administrative Law (summa cum laude) and in a dual programme combining law and technology (cum laude). This background enables him to approach new issues with a broad perspective.

Thijs ten Caten

Attorney-at-law

TtenCaten@akd.eu

+31 88 253 5955

+31 6 31 02 09 57

The Netherlands

Languages

- Dutch
- English

Admitted to bar

- The Netherlands

Membership

- Dutch Association of Energy Lawyers
- Administrative Law Association

Education

- Tilburg University: Bachelor of Law - Dutch law
- Tilburg University: Master of Law - State and Administrative Law
- Tilburg University: Master of Law & Technology - European Law & Technology