

About Winfried van den Muijsenbergh

Winfried van den Muijsenbergh is a partner and corporate attorney-at-law who specialises in company law, with an emphasis on corporate litigation, (international) arbitrations, company law advice (corporate governance) and joint ventures.

Winfried has litigated for more than 35 years in the Netherlands and elsewhere. The proceedings he has been involved in included inquiry procedures before the Enterprise Chamber of the Court of Appeal in Amsterdam, mainly with regard to takeover, shareholder and joint venture disputes.

Winfried is also a lecturer in dispute proceedings at the Law Firm School and the Grotius specialist study programme in company and corporate law. He is also a visiting professor at the LL.M. Programme of the Pacific McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento, the United States and at the University of Hainan in China.
